

PIE TALKIC

ASK: What are things that divide us today? What are the things that create division and cut us up into pieces?

WRITE down words in your pie that are points of division in the world today. How can we talk about the pieces in the spirit of the undivided, unifying mind of Christ?

People don't need another piece of our mind but we all need the peace of the mind of Christ.
How can we savor that today?